

Editors:

Junko Imanishi

1976, B.A. Gakushuin University. 1980, M.A. Columbia University. Since 1994, Associate Director of Atsumi International Scholarship Foundation, which aims not only to financially support international students, but also to build a network of Japan specialists around the world. 2000, Established Sekiguchi Global Research Association (SGRA). Since 1997: voluntarily working for CISV, a global organization of cross-cultural and peace education. Since 2007, Vice President of CISV International (a UK Charity Company). Since 2004, Trustee of Japan Foundation Center. Edited "That is Why I Chose Japan: A Surprising Look at Nippon from the Eyes of International Students," (ed.) Japan Book, 2006.

Ulziibaatar Demberel

Graduated from the National University of Mongolia in 1982, Ph.D of Historical Science in 1998. Since 2000, he has been working in the National Archives of Mongolia as a Director General. Since 1983, he has been working as an archivist in the National Central Archive, Professor in the University of Defense under the Ministry of Social Safety, Researcher in the Ministry of Interior archive, and Scientific Researcher in the Research Center for Rehabilitation, Director of the National Central Archive, and officer in the National Archival Administration. Published Books "Why 1937 ?", Some Notes from 20's of XX Century, "Researching Archival Documents on Mongolian History" cooperating with Prof. Hiroshi Futaki, in 2008, has written over 200 archival and historical articles and essays. Working as an editor for more than 10 volumes of serial books published by the National Central Archives of Mongolia and serial books in cooperation with the Russian Federal Archives, and General Editor for archival and records management of the magazine "Kemu".

Husel Borjigin

1989, B.Phil. Beijing University. 2001, M.A. Tokyo University of Foreign Studies. 2006, Ph.D. Tokyo University of Foreign Studies. Since 1989, Lecturer, Inner Mongolian University. 2004, Part-time Lecturer, Showa Women's University, Japan. 2008, Japan Society for the Promotion of Science Postdoctoral Fellowships for Foreign Researchers, The Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, The University of Tokyo. Published "The Revival of the Inner Mongolian People's Revolutionary Party in 1945 and its Historical Significance" in The Nairiku Ajiashi Kenkyu (Inner Asian Studies).